

Faculty Seminar The Role of Higher Educational and Other Anchor Institutions in Promoting Employment and College and Career Readiness of High School Students in Philadelphia

LAURA W. PERNA

WITH SUPPORT FROM MOORMAN-SIMON PROGRAM FOR EDUCATION AND SCHOOLING FOR DEMOCRACY AND CITIZENSHIP AT THE NETTER CENTER FOR COMMUNITY PARTNERSHIPS

ahead-penn.org

Goals and Objectives of the Seminar

5 sessions

January 15, February 12, March 18, April 15, May 6

The problem, potential solutions, next steps

Community of research and practice

Session 1

The Problem:

Increasing College & Career Readiness and Employment for High School Students in Philadelphia

January 15, 2016

Session #1Panelists

Laura Perna

• University of Pennsylvania

Stephanie Gambone

• Philadelphia Youth Network

Joan Mazzotti

Philadelphia Futures

Sean Vereen

Steppingstone Scholars

Setting the Stage:

Why do we need to increase college and career readiness and employment for high school students in Philadelphia?

Preparing Today's Students for Tomorrow's Jobs in Metropolitan America

Perna, L.W. (2010). Preparing Today's Students for Tomorrow's Jobs in Metropolitan American. Philadelphia, PA: University of Pennsylvania Press.

Understanding the Working College Student

Perna, L.W. (Ed., 2010). Understanding the working college student: New research and its implications for policy and practice. Herndon, VA: Stylus Publishing, LLC.

Distribution of Jobs and Workers by Educational Attainment

(Philadelphia-Camden-Wilmington Metro Area, 2010)

Higher Education Is Increasingly Important To Individual AND Societal Well-Being

Salaries Increase with Educational Attainment

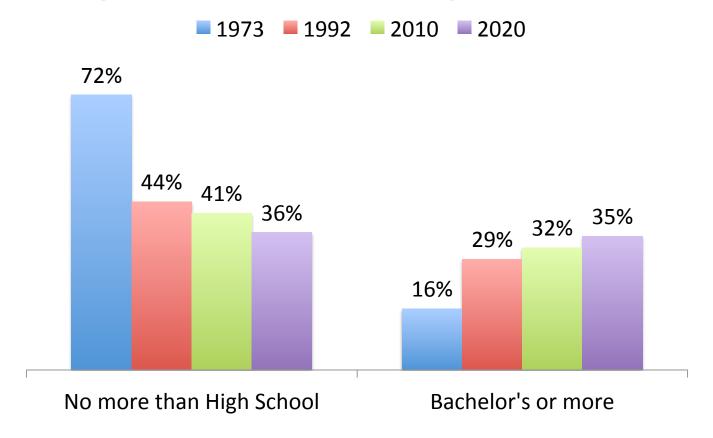

Wage premium by education. Compared to high school graduates, holders of Bachelor's degrees and better have earned a substantial wage premium since the 1990s. (makes no control for full-time or full-year status of workers)

Source: Authors' analysis of March CPS data, various years

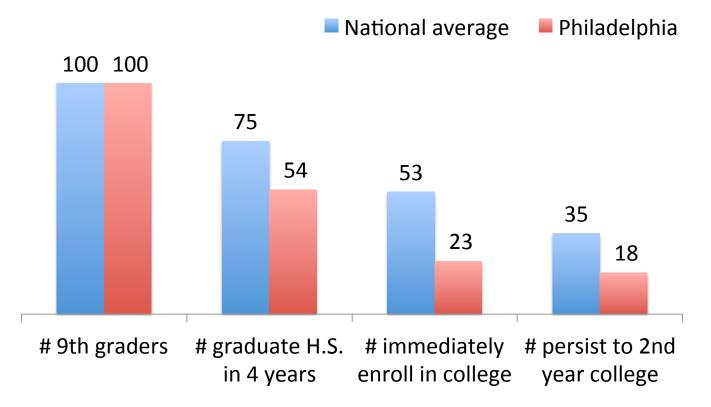

Source: Carnevale, A., Smith, N., & Strohl, J. (2010). Help wanted. Washington, DC: Georgetown Center for Workforce and the Economy.

Available Jobs in the U.S. Increasingly Require Postsecondary Education

Educational Attainment of Students in Philadelphia Lags the National Average

(2004-05 and 2005-06 9th graders)

Program of Research on How to Improve College Access, Persistence, and Attainment

Educational Attainment Is A Longitudinal Process

More Students In Philadelphia Intend to Enroll in College Than Actually Enroll

(2010-11 High School Exit Survey)

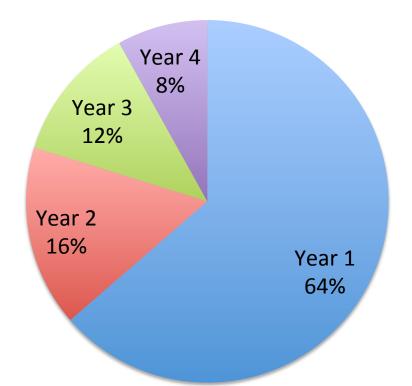

Intends to enroll Does not Intend to attend

When Students First Fall Off Track

(Among Students Who Entered H.S. in 2004-05 and 2006-07 And Were Ever Off Track to Graduate H.S. in 4 Years)

50% of 9th graders fall "off track" to graduate ("off track" determined by credit attainment)

High School Completion Rates Vary by High School Type

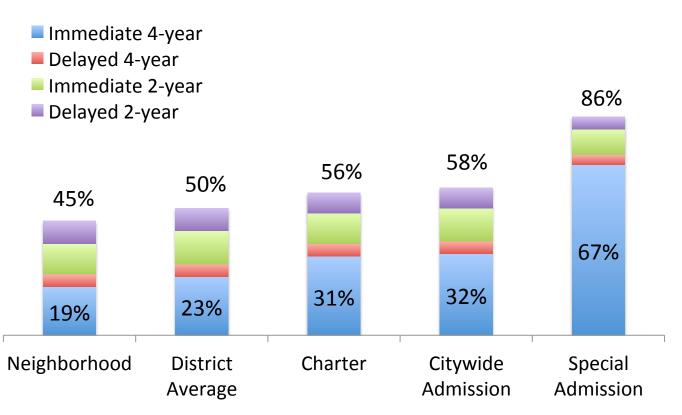

(Students who Were 9th Graders in 2004-05 and 2005-06)

College Enrollment Rates Vary by High School Type

(Students who Were 9th Graders in 2004-05 and 2005-06)

College Enrollment Decisions: Students Weigh the Benefits and Costs

Multiple Forces Influence Higher Education Attainment

Improving Higher Education Attainment Requires Attention to the Context

What Can Be Done to Address Systemic and Structural Barriers?

