

DECISION DELAWARE

COMMUNITY ELECTION FORUMS

You're invited. Come and make your voice heard.

*Sponsored by WHYY and NewsWorks-Delaware
Led by the Penn Project for Civic Engagement*

Join with other Delaware voters to discuss the issues that matter most to you in this year's mid-term congressional elections.

Doors open at 6 p.m. for registration/refreshments
Program: 6:30 p.m. – 8:30 p.m.

Forum dates and locations:

Wednesday, Sept. 22

Middletown

Middletown Historical Society
216 N. Broad Street

Monday, Sept. 27

Dover

Biggs Museum of American Arts
406 Federal Street

Monday, Oct. 4

Wilmington

Delaware History Museum
505 N. Market Street

Come and bring a friend along.

Meet Bill Cook, Mark Eichmann and others from WHYY's First television magazine team. They'll be there, to listen to what you have to say and to interview voters for First.

Help frame the questions that will be asked of the U.S. Senate and House candidates at WHYY/First broadcast debates later in October.

(Candidates will not be there; this is about hearing what YOU have to say. Discussion will be led by trained moderators from the Project for Civic Engagement, which has led similar citizen dialogues all over the Mid-Atlantic region)

ADVANCE REGISTRATION REQUESTED.
